Why Choose this trip?

Enjoy a classic New Years Eve in Quebec City. There's a reason we keep going back, it's the perfect place to recoup from Christmas. Spend the days skiing a huge hill and the nights exploring the narrow streets and alleys.

Mont-Sainte Anne with 2,050 feet of vertical, is impressive, big-mountain skiing with a lift system to match.

Everywhere you turn there's an activity: tobogganing, sleigh rides, ice skating, ice climbing, snow rafting, dogsledding, cross-country skiing, you name it.

With more than 4,900 restaurants representing 85 different ethnic styles, the city is also renowned for its cuisine.

What, you want more? Well if you've got the cash left for a lift ticket you can ski Le Massif too. You might even run into Jean-Luc Brassard
