2009/2010

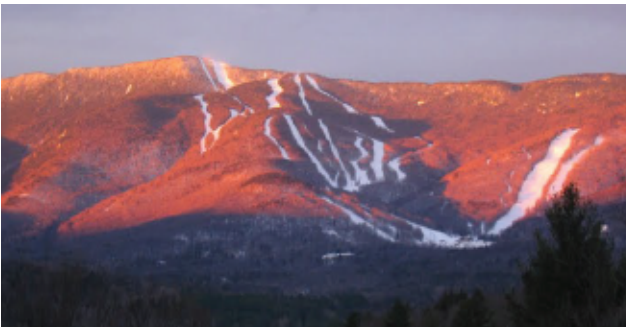

Why Choose this trip?

Sugarbush is a terrific natural skiing mountain, often getting more than 350 inches of natural snowfall each year. With six mountains and 4,000 total acres - 508 of them skiable - there's plenty to do and see. Five high-speed quads and an array of smaller lifts serve the area. The 23,000 square-foot day lodge features cathedral ceilings, a food court, and the Castlerock Pub complete with an outdoor patio and BBQ area.
